Alberta Beef Producers to meet in Edmonton

(Calgary, Alberta) May 26, 2010 – Items such as refundable check-off and Land Use Framework will be discussed during the upcoming Alberta Beef Producers (ABP) Semi Annual Meeting.

ABP representatives, industry personnel and producers will convene in Edmonton at the Delta Edmonton South Hotel & Conference Centre on Monday, June 7. The meeting, running through to Wednesday, June 9, will feature a variety of speakers.

The meeting will feature a general session on June 8 that is open to the public.

Attached to this email is a draft meeting agenda.

The nearly 28,000 beef producers in this province have an organization which represents their collective interests – the Alberta Beef Producers. Run by producers for producers, ABP is dedicated to supporting a truly sustainable, competitive and profitable cattle and beef industry for the benefit of all Albertans.
