

Position Offering

Senior Market Analyst – Canfax

Canfax is Canada's source for cattle market information. A division of the Canadian Cattlemen's Association, Canfax has provided expert analysis of markets in trends in the ever changing North American beef industry for over 30 years. Cattlemen, feedlot managers and agri-business professionals rely on up-to-the minute information as an essential tool for maximizing profit in today's beef sector.

As Senior Market Analyst you will be responsible for overseeing the business development and operations of the Canfax division including staff supervision, budgets and membership services. The Senior Market Analyst is responsible for providing market analysis services to Canfax members, overseeing the publication of weekly and special reports, managing data analysis and requests, speaking engagements, and being an industry spokesperson for media inquiries.

This position offers an opportunity for the candidate to provide leadership to a dedicated staff and service to the Canadian beef cattle industry in market intelligence and analysis. Travel in Canada and the western U.S. will be required.

The Canadian Cattlemen's Association offers a competitive compensation and benefits package and flexibility in working conditions conducive to the performance requirements.
